Let us help you make the right choice

Knowing what is the quickest, cheapest or most reliable method of making a payment can be difficult. Whether you're moving your money between your own Bankwest accounts, around Australia or across the world, we've got you covered.

Payments within Australia

Looking to move your money around within Australia, either between Bankwest accounts or to an account at another financial institution?

Internal transfers are the most effective way for you to move money between your own Bankwest accounts by using Bankwest Online Banking (BOB). Internal transfers are available through BOB 24/7 and all the transfers are instant so you can move your money any time of the day or night wherever you may be.

Pay Anybody is a quick and easy way to make secure transfers within Australia and is ideal for transfers under $15,000. Transfers to another Bankwest account using Pay Anybody will usually be available within the hour. If the transfer is made after 3:00pm WA local time (AWST) or on a weekend or National public holiday the date shown for the transfer will be the next business day. Pay Anybody transfers to other Australian financial institution accounts will be processed within one business day.

BPAY® allows you to pay your eligible bills and transfer money to a credit card you hold at another Australian Financial institution. BPAY payments are processed on your requested date if they are received by us before 4pm AWST on a banking business day.
Fees and charges may apply.

® Registered to BPAY Pty Ltd ABN 69 079 137 518

Real Time Gross Settlement (RTGS) is a quick, secure way to send money to other financial institutions in Australia. It costs a little more than other methods, but funds arrive at the other end on the same day (depending on the recipient bank) and therefore it's often used when urgently transferring large amounts of money.

When sending an RTGS payment you need to get the completed form into a Bankwest store for processing before 12.15pm WA local time (AWST) in order for your transfer to go through on the same day.

International Payments

Need to transfer or receive money from overseas?

International Money Transfer (IMT) are used whenever you need to send money overseas. To send money overseas complete the IMT form to advise Bankwest to deduct money from your account and transfer it to an overseas financial institution.
