Section 5(c) – Online Telegraphic Transfers Terms and Conditions

General

- 1 Bankwest may use other financial institutions (Other Institutions) to make the payment to the Beneficiary. Bankwest may receive a commission from Other Institutions.
- 2 The time taken for a payment to reach the Beneficiary depends on the banking systems of the countries or Other Institutions through which the payment is made and the provision of correct and complete Beneficiary information. A payment sent overseas to a major financial centre or to a destination in North America, the United Kingdom or Western Europe will normally be received by the Beneficiary within one week. Other overseas payments may take longer, and in some cases can take several months.
- 3 The payment will be made to the Beneficiary Account Number you provide. The receiving institution may not check that the Beneficiary's name you provide on this form matches the Beneficiary Account Number you provide. It is therefore essential that you check that the Beneficiary Account Number you provide is correct. Neither Bankwest nor any Other Institution is liable for any loss resulting from errors in the Beneficiary Account Number you provide.
- 4 If you want to amend or recall a payment you have requested, please contact Bankwest via Online International Trade, using the correspondence function. However, if we have already processed your payment request, the payment cannot be recalled unless the Beneficiary authorises the recall.
- 5 To the extent permitted by law, Bankwest will not be liable for any loss resulting from delays in making the payment by it or any Other Institution or for any loss resulting from any act or omission of any Other Institution.

Fees and charges

- 6 Details of the Bankwest fees and charges that apply to the payment are set out in the fee schedule (provided to you with this form). Information on standard fees and charges is available on request. The fees charged by Bankwest do not cover any charges that may be made by Other Institutions. Clause 7 below explains how fees charged by Other Institutions will be paid.
- 7 Other Institutions may charge a fee for making the payment to the Beneficiary. If Other Institutions charge a fee, they will deduct their fee from the payment (so the Beneficiary will receive a lesser amount that you request Bankwest to remit).

Anti-money laundering

- 8 Bankwest may delay, block, freeze or refuse to make a payment where Bankwest has reasonable grounds to believe that making the payment may breach Australian law or the law of any other country.
- 9 You will provide any additional information Bankwest reasonably requires to comply with Australian law or the law of any other country.
- 10 In order to make this payment, personal information relating to individuals named in this form may be processed for the purposes of:
 - (a) complying with applicable laws, including without limitation anti-money laundering and anti-terrorism laws and regulations; and
 - (b) fighting crime and terrorism, including disclosure to any government entity, regulatory authority or to any other person we reasonably think necessary for those purposes. This may mean that personal information will be transferred overseas to countries that are not subject to privacy obligations equivalent to those which apply within Australia. You agree to the processing and transfer of your personal information in this way and confirm you are authorised to instruct us to process and transfer personal information relating to other individuals named on this form.

Code of Banking Practice

- 11 The Code of Banking Practice (the Code) applies to this service where you are an individual or small business (as defined in the Code).
- 12 Bankwest has available general descriptive information about its banking services including account opening procedures, Bankwest's obligations regarding the confidentiality of your information, complaint handling procedures, bank cheques, the advisability of you informing Bankwest when you are in financial difficulty and the advisability of you reading the terms and conditions applying to a banking service from Bankwest. This information is set out in the document 'Banking Services Rights and Obligations', which you can obtain from our website www.bankwest.com.au or by calling 1800 650 111.

Details of additional rights of individuals located in the EU and how we meet them are outlined in Appendix 1 of the Privacy Policy.

Purposes for which we collect and use personal information

We collect your information because we are required to identify you in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act. You are not required to provide your Tax File Number. However, if we do not collect your Tax File Number as permitted by the Taxation Administration Act 1953 and the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, we may be required to withhold amounts from you and remit them to the Australian Taxation Office.

If you use our website or online applications we may collect information about your location or activity (including whether you have accessed third party sites) to customise your experience.

The information we collect about you may also include sensitive information such as information about your health where we collect it to provide you with a specific product or service.

Exchange of personal information

We may exchange personal information about you with: our related bodies corporate, other persons to verify that it is correct (eg with your employer); assignees, agents, contractors and external advisers; organisations for verifying your identity; your agents, advisers, referees, executors, administrators, trustees, beneficiaries (if you are a trustee), guardians or attorneys; law enforcement, regulatory and Government bodies; anyone who introduces you to us; reward program providers, third parties providing fraud detection services, your franchisor; payment system operators; your and our insurers or prospective insurers and their underwriters; any person we consider necessary to execute your instructions; broker groups and broker industry associations; other organisations for the supply of services and (unless you tell us not to) marketing of products; other persons where this is permitted by law; persons with whom you make a joint application for a product or service with us; any financial institution to or from which a payment is made in relation to any account you have or operate; your current and prospective co-borrowers, current and prospective signatories participants or transferees in a securitisation or other funding scheme (including ratings agencies), or persons considering purchasing or who purchase or manage loans and their advisers; financial institutions, and debt collecting agencies.

In some cases, these persons or organisations may disclose your personal information for the purposes of any relationship they have with you or performing functions in relation to you.

Verifying your identity using a credit reporting body (CRB)

In order to verify your identity, we may provide your name, residential address and date of birth to a CRB, which may use that information and corresponding information in credit information files of individuals to prepare and provide an assessment of whether your information matches information on a credit information file held by that CRB. You agree to us requesting an assessment and providing your personal information for such an assessment.

Transfer of personal information overseas

Sometimes it may be necessary to send your information overseas – for example, where we outsource functions overseas or to related bodies corporate; where we need to complete a transaction on your behalf or where this is required by laws and regulations in Australia or in another country. These countries include, but are not limited to, New Zealand, United Kingdom, USA and Ireland. See our Privacy Policy for more information.

Marketing

Unless you tell us not to, you consent to us using your personal information (including information collected from others) to advertise or promote products, services, or business or investment opportunities we think may interest you.

You can ask us not to contact you and not to disclose your information to others for that purpose, by calling 13 17 19.

Otherwise, you consent to us contacting you for that purpose, including by:

- contacting you by telephone or writing to you; and
- sending commercial electronic messages to any electronic address which you provide until you withdraw your consent or unsubscribe.

Access to your personal information, contacting us and contacting you

This Statement should be read in conjunction with the Privacy Policy on our website at www.bankwest.com.au or by calling 13 17 19.

You have rights to access your personal information from us, to request us to correct the information, and to make a complaint to us about a breach of your privacy rights in relation to the information. The Privacy Policy includes further information about how you may do this.
