Qantas Points will be accrued on balances held in your Account. Qantas Points on balances will be accrued on the daily balance at the rate accrual stated in the table in clause 1.

4.3 Bonus Qantas Points promotion running 30 November 2015 to 29 February 2016

The 10,000 bonus Qantas Points Promotion is a stand-alone promotion and is available to new Bankwest transaction account customers who open a Bankwest Qantas Transaction Account on or before 29 February 2016 and meet the following criteria:

A. Deposit and spend requirements

- For 6 consecutive calendar months commencing from the calendar month in which your account is opened, deposit at least $2,000 per month (e.g. your salary) and spend $500 per month on Eligible Purchases. E.g. if you open an account on 10 December 2015, you must deposit at least $2,000 and spend $500 for the calendar months of December, January, February, March, April and May.
- After 3 calendar months commencing from the calendar month in which your account is opened, if you have satisfied the deposit and spend criteria, 5,000 bonus Qantas Points will be credited to your Qantas Frequent Flyer account within 60 days. E.g. For an account opened on 10 December, where the eligibility requirement is met for the calendar months of December, January and February, Qantas Points will be paid 60 days from 28 February.

- After 6 calendar months from account open, if you have satisfied the deposit and spend criteria the remaining 3 months, an additional 5,000 bonus Qantas Points will be credited to your Qantas Frequent Flyer account within 60 days.
- To be fair to customers who opened their account later in the month, where a customer has not met the minimum deposit and spend requirement for the first calendar month commencing the calendar month in which the account was opened, we will also look at whether they have met the deposit and spend requirements for the next full three and six calendar months. For example if the account was opened on December 15th, we will look to see if you have met the deposit and spend requirements for the months of December, January and February. However, if you did not meet the deposit and spend requirements for the calendar month of December, we will also look to see if you have met the deposit and spend requirements for the months of January, February and March. If you meet the deposits and spend requirements for these months we will look at April, May and June for the additional 5,000 Bonus Qantas Points.
- If you do not meet the deposit and spend criteria in the first three months (either within the first three calendar months commencing from the calendar month in which your account is opened or within the first three full calendar months from the account open date), you will not meet the eligibility criteria and as a result you will not be entitled to any bonus Qantas Points.

B. Requirement to have a linked and valid Qantas Frequent flyer account

- Bankwest Qantas Transaction Account must be open at time of Qantas Points payment and linked to a valid Qantas Frequent Flyer account to receive bonus Qantas Points.

C. New customer requirement

- If you already hold an existing Bankwest transaction account or if you have closed one in the last 30 days, or if you have previously held a Bankwest Qantas Transaction Account then you will not be eligible for this promotion.

The 10,000 bonus Qantas Points promotion is subject to change, promotion ends 29 February 2016
