Helpful tips and instructions on what to do.

Your Mortgage document contains multiple pages.

1 Only complete the 'Mortgagor Execution' section.

- Follow the notes and steps below.

A The witness needs to:

- Witness both copies
- Not be a party to the loan or the transfer of the property
- Write their full name (no initials)
- Have a consistent signature in all documents signed
- Write their full address (No PO Box)
- Be a person over 18 years of age

Mortgagors should NOT witness each other

B Who's the mortgagor?

The mortgagor is the owner/s of the property which the mortgage is being taken over. This property is providing the security for the loan.

Inconsistencies in signatures may result in delays to your home loan.

C Make sure to add the date.

Things you should know.

- Both copies of the mortgage document are signed and dated by all parties.
- You use black pen.
- You don't use correction fluid.
- You don't make any hand written amendments – If you make a mistake, please contact your Lender/ Broker who can let you know what to do next.
- If your mortgage needs to be witnessed overseas, please turn over this page for further instructions.
