This Statement explains how Bankwest, Commonwealth Bank of Australia (“CBA”) and subsidiaries of CBA (“we” or “us”) collect, use and disclose personal information and send communications about products and services.

‘Personal information’ is information about, and which identifies, an individual (such as name and contact details). Your personal information includes information about who you are; your interactions with us (such as transactions on your account); your credit history (including what you borrow, whether you make repayments on time and information obtained from credit reporting bodies (CRBs)). It may also include information about you that is publicly available, for example from public registers or made available through social media.

When you give us personal information about another person, you represent that you are authorised to do so and agree to inform that person of the contents of this Statement as it relates to them.

In addition to the Privacy Act, individuals located in the European Union (EU) may also have rights under EU based rules known as the General Data Protection Regulation

(GDPR). The GDPR has harmonised the data privacy laws of each individual EU country, giving more rights to individuals located in the EU and more obligations to organisations holding their personal information.

Details of additional rights of individuals located in the EU and how we meet them are outlined in Appendix 1 of the Privacy Policy.

Purposes for which we collect and use personal information

We collect your information to identify you in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act, and if you are giving a mortgage, certain State property laws, e.g. Real Property Act in NSW and to assess your application for consumer credit under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act if applicable. You are not required to provide your Tax File Number. However, if we do not collect your Tax File Number as permitted by the Taxation Administration Act 1953 and the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, we may be required to withhold amounts from you and remit them to the Australian Taxation Office.

We also collect your personal information to assess and process an application for any product or service that you make or for which you are a signatory, guarantor, or representative; for internal processes including risk management and pricing, to administer our relationship with you, to meet our obligations in relation to external payment, credit reporting systems, Government bodies and our funding arrangements, to identify and (unless you tell us not to) tell you about products that may interest you, and to comply with regulatory requirements.

‘Personal information’ is information about, and which identifies, an individual (such as name and contact details). Your personal information includes information about who you are; your interactions with us (such as transactions on your account); your credit history (including what you borrow, whether you make repayments on time and information obtained from credit reporting bodies (CRBs)). It may also include information about you that is publicly available, for example from public registers or made available through social media.

In addition to the Privacy Act, individuals located in the European Union (EU) may also have rights under EU based rules known as the General Data Protection Regulation

(GDPR). The GDPR has harmonised the data privacy laws of each individual EU country, giving more rights to individuals located in the EU and more obligations to organisations holding their personal information.

Details of additional rights of individuals located in the EU and how we meet them are outlined in Appendix 1 of the Privacy Policy.

Purposes for which we collect and use personal information

We collect your information to identify you in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act, and if you are giving a mortgage, certain State property laws, e.g. Real Property Act in NSW and to assess your application for consumer credit under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act if applicable. You are not required to provide your Tax File Number. However, if we do not collect your Tax File Number as permitted by the Taxation Administration Act 1953 and the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, we may be required to withhold amounts from you and remit them to the Australian Taxation Office.

We also collect your personal information to assess and process an application for any product or service that you make or for which you are a signatory, guarantor, or representative; for internal processes including risk management and pricing, to administer our relationship with you, to meet our obligations in relation to external payment, credit reporting systems, Government bodies and our funding arrangements, to identify and (unless you tell us not to) tell you about products that may interest you, and to comply with regulatory requirements.

If you use our website or online applications we may collect information about your location or activity (including whether you have accessed third party sites) to customise your experience.

The information we collect about you may also include sensitive information such as information about your health where we collect it for a specific purpose, for example, in assessing an application you make for hardship relief.
