Target Market Determination

Settlement Agent Trust Account

Start date: 18 February 2022
Next review due: By 31 March 2023
Review period: At least every 36 months from the start date of this Target Market Determination

What is a Target Market Determination?
A Target Market Determination describes the cohort of customers that the product is targeted at (the Target Market) and any conditions around how the product is distributed to customers (the Distribution Conditions).
It also describes the events or circumstances where we are required to review the Target Market Determination for a financial product (the Review Triggers).

Why does Bankwest need to have Target Market Determinations?
We're required to have Target Market Determinations under law. The purpose of the law is to make sure customers are at the centre of our approach when designing and distributing our financial products.

Why the product is likely to be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of the Target Market

- Customers can use the account for Settlement Agent trust account purposes; and
- Customers can only obtain the product if they meet the eligibility criteria.

Distribution Conditions

The distribution of this product is subject to the following conditions and restrictions:

- The product may be applied for by the customer:
  - Through a Bankwest branch, over the phone or through Bankwest employees who meet Bankwest's qualification criteria (e.g. trained consultants, lenders, home lending specialists, private bankers and/ or relationship managers).
- The product cannot be distributed through online channels;
- The product cannot be distributed or offered through third parties; and
- The product can only be distributed to customers in accordance with Bankwest's product terms and conditions and process requirements.

Bankwest views that these distribution conditions are appropriate and are of a nature that it is likely that the product will be distributed to the Target Market given that:

- Bankwest will have oversight of how the product is promoted and issued, including that Bankwest staff are appropriately trained to discuss the features of the product with customers.
